Today's savvy e-commerce business owner knows how to compete. In years past a business, shopped for the products they wanted to resell. They then purchased the items and stored them while they searched for an end user or consumer. Once the product was sold, they shipped the item to their customer and hopefully made a profit. This method is costly. Besides the price of the item, the seller pays shipping from the manufacturer (or distributor) to his location. He then stores the item, taking up resources and space until he resells the merchandise. He invests time and effort into marketing the item and either he or the end user pays shipping (again) to their location. All of these steps have to be factored into the price of the item to the end user. The customer will decide if the end price of the item is a bargain and is competitive. As the shipper, if the item is lost or damaged in shipping the expense of filing tracking and claims falls on him as well. Drop Shipping is a proven way of reducing or eliminating many of these expenses, thus making the end price lower for the consumer and more profitable for the seller. With drop shipping, a seller or retailer does not purchase the item and store it for resell, but rather sells the merchandise and ships it directly from the manufacturer to the consumer. The seller does not have to store the item or pay shipping from the manufacture to his location. He does not have to handle the item himself. This reduces chance of loss or damage and speeds up the process considerably! He needs less start-up money (storage rental can be very costly and a product on hand that moves slower than anticipated can create a cash flow problem right out of the gate) and can invest more time and money on his sales. He also does not have to reship the item and there is only one shipping expense to absorb, lowering the price of the item and making it of more value and profit for all concerned. If there is loss or damage in shipping, it falls on the manufacturer (or distributor) to provide the documents and file any claims with the shipping company involved. Okay, so all of this sounds great, right? But how do you get started? This eBook will teach you how! So, let's get started!

Dropshipping Shopify 2021 Imagine a business where you could sell whatever you wanted without having to handle the product physically and being able to charge whatever price you wanted to charge on it. This is essentially what dropshipping amounts to. It is a wonderful business model; you're going to learn all about it inside and out in this chapter. There are some disadvantages as well that would be remiss of me not to remind you of. I'll cover those as well since it is unrealistic for you to assume that everything will always be hunky-dory. Either way, let's jump in and look at what dropshipping is. Dropshipping is the process where a middleman retails a manufacturer's or wholesaler's product. The middleman, in this case, is you, the store owner. The store owner takes care of all of the marketing aspects and drives traffic to the order pages, and the wholesaler takes care of product fulfillment, such as delivery and packaging. In some cases, you can even have the manufacturer brand the product with your own name and have them ship it to your customers. This business model is of immense help to the manufacturer and wholesaler since they get to focus on investing in what they know best, which is manufacturing the product. You get to focus on what you know best, which is to drive traffic and bring in sales. In effect, you're a one-person marketing team for the wholesaler's products. What's not to like? The customer will order the product via your website or sales channel and will pay you money. In turn, you pay the wholesaler at their quoted price, and you pocket the profits.

Perhaps the most essential advantage to dropshipping is that it's possible to launch an e-commerce store without the need to invest thousands of dollars in inventory to start with. Customarily, merchants have had to tie up vast amounts of capital when acquiring stock. But, this is unnecessary if you use dropshipping. With a dropshipping model, there is no need to purchase a product without you already having made the sale, and having been paid by your customer. Devoid of substantial up-front inventory investments, it is very possible to begin a thriving dropshipping business without minimal financial backup. It's Easy to Start Running e-commerce businesses is easier when you don't have to deal with handling physical products. When you dropship, you have no worries about *Paying for, or managing a warehouse *Packing and shipping your customers' orders *Tracking the inventory for accounting purposes *Handling inbound shipments or any returns, physically *Repeatedly ordering products and maintaining stock levels *Needing a storage place to hold physical products Low Overheads Because there is no reason to deal with purchasing any inventory or the management of a warehouse, your overheads and businesses expenses can be quite small. Many successful dropshipping companies are run from home offices with a single computer for less than $100 per month. As your business grows, it's likely these expenses will increase, but nonetheless, they will still be low when compared to traditional brick-and-mortar companies. Dropshipping businesses can be run from almost anywhere as long as you have an internet connection. This is vital to allow communication with your suppliers and your customers, both quickly and efficiently. Many successful online stores are run by people when they live outside of their home country, too. Because there is no need to pre-purchase any items you sell, you can offer a broader array of products to potential customers. So, if your supplier stocks a certain product, you can list it for sale in your online store, or on the platform you use, at no additional cost. With conventional business types, if you have orders for three times as much business, it is likely you'll need to perform three times as much work. With the leveraging of dropshipping suppliers, the majority of the work in processing additional orders is borne by your suppliers. This allows you to expand your business with fewer growing pains. Sales growth always brings some extra work. In most cases, this is primarily related to customer service. Companies that exploit dropshipping as a necessity, scale exceptionally well, especially when compared to conventional e-commerce businesses. All of these benefits make dropshipping an advantageous and efficient model to both new and established merchants, alike. Regrettably, dropshipping isn't always a bed of roses, though. All this convenience and flexibility comes with a few disadvantages. Let's shed some light on these.

Affiliate Marketing For Beginners If you were to ask a random user of the Internet what he or she thought Affiliate Marketing was; he or she would likely claim that it was a way of making money online as an intermediary. Here, people make a commission from a sale or a referral when a visitor to his or her site clicks on a link that directs him or her to a product or page online. However, as much as there is a lot of truth there, Affiliate Marketing does not only have to take place online. For example, affiliate marketing is also where a plumber gives a client a discount for referring him or her to a new client. It is the same concept. This kind of marketing happens a lot in the real world, but people do not trace or coordinate it as much as is the case with online marketing. Business owners can ask their customers how they came to know about them in an effort to learn about their client base, but they cannot get as much information as they would be using online tracking. The growing online market has made this type of marketing more popular and profitable. It has also made it easier to grow and expand whatever type of business an individual is in with the help of numerous professional marketers who will not necessarily appear on their payroll. Therefore, while its history started long before the invention of the Internet, the Internet has transformed it and made it widely available to the masses. You will start by learning all about the ins and outs of affiliate marketing and what you need to get your feet wet in the marketing world. You will then learn about the importance of choosing the right niche and how to find one that will provide you with a sustainable passive income stream for years to come. From there, you will learn the key steps to creating a website that will attract the right type of users as well as the importance of SEO and how to ensure that your new website shows up in as many different sets of search results as possible. Finally, you will learn just what it takes to create the type of quality content that ensures people keeping back for more month after month and year after year. ships it to the customer directly. The merchant neither handles nor sees the product. Dropshipping is different from the conventional retail model in that, in dropshipping the seller does not own an inventory. He or she purchases an order from a third party. The dropshipping model, like everything else, has drawbacks and benefits. You need less capital: this is arguably the biggest advantage. You do not need thousands of dollars to start an ecommerce store. Conventional retailers need to have a huge amount of capital to build their inventory. In dropshipping, you only purchase a product once a customer has placed an order and made the payment. An initial inventory investment is not needed. Easy to start: an ecommerce business becomes much easier to run when you do not handle physical products. You will not worry about a warehouse, packing and shipping, tracking inventory, handling returns, and much more. Low overhead: since you will not be dealing with a warehouse or purchasing inventory, expect low overhead expenses. A lot of people run a dropshipping businesses from their home office with their laptop and only use about $100 per month. The expenses may increase as your business grows but they will still be low. Flexible location: if you have an internet connection, you can manage your dropshipping business from anywhere.
